

CONTENTS

1. The nature of law .....	7
1.1. Natural law .....	8
1.2. Legal positivism .....	12
1.3. Sociological jurisprudence .....	17
1.4. Czech legal thinking .....	20
2. Divisions of law .....	26
2.1. Substantive and procedural law .....	27
2.2. Public and private law .....	28
3. Major legal systems .....	31
3.1. Civil law .....	31
3.2. Common law .....	34
3.3. Mixed legal systems .....	37
3.4. Islamic law .....	38
4. Sources of law .....	42
4.1. Legislation .....	43
4.2. Precedents .....	45
4.3. Doctrine .....	48
4.4. Custom .....	50
5. Legal norms .....	52
5.1. Basic aspects of legal norms .....	52
5.2. Activity of legal norms .....	60
6. Legal relations .....	66
6.1. Legal facts .....	66
6.2. Subjects of legal relations .....	67
6.3. Object and content of legal relations .....	71
7. Legal liability .....	73
7.1. The theory or remedial liability .....	73
7.2. The theory of penal liability .....	74
7.3. Illegal acts .....	75
7.4. Intention and negligence .....	76

8. Interpretation of law .....	79
8.1. Methods of interpretation .....	79
8.2. Subject of interpretation .....	80
8.3. Gaps in the law .....	81
9. Rule of law .....	85
9.1. Government by law, not by men .....	85
9.2. Basic principles .....	87
10. Continuity and discontinuity .....	92
10.1. State continuity and discontinuity .....	92
10.2. Territorial and legal continuity and discontinuity .....	94
10.3. Continuity and discontinuity of political regime .....	96
11. Law and morality .....	99
11.1. Basic assumptions .....	99
11.2. Law versus morality .....	101
11.3. The optimal domains of law and morality .....	106
12. Law and justice .....	114
12.1. Basic assumptions .....	114
12.2. Equality .....	115
Bibliography .....	121